DAVIS THEATRE.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Another Big Vaudeville Headliner.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the Davis management will present at that popular theatre of the varrieties another big Keith superfor vaudeville act. The Newsboy Sexette, in a variety singing, talking and dancing offering. This is one of vaudeville's cleverest and most delightful offerings, the sextet of entertainers being artists of unusual ability. They have con-structed an act which is bound to please even the most blase theatregoer, revelling in mirth and melody and terpsichore. The act comes to this city direct from the Kelth circuit where it has scored a tremendous senduring the past season. This ill uphold the high standard of excellency which is a feature of the Davis shows.

The Mutual Masterpicture for Monday and Tuesday is called "The Lure of the Mask", a four part drama, with a powerful plot, dealing with love, vengeance and intrique—a screen por-trayed of one of the most successfully novels ever brought out. An unusual strong cast of American actors appear in this feature, including Haroid Lock-wood, Elsie Jane Wilson, Irving Cum-mings, Lucy Dayton and other screen at The Davis Today.

Mutual movies including The Mutual War Weekly and a funny comedy film will complete the show.

Today will be the last opportunity for the people of Norwich to see The Fashion Shop, Hugo Jansen's big act, which has drawn big crowds to this popular theatre all week. Everything is new and different from the first three days of the week, and the gowns draped on the beautiful models are even more stunning than the ones at the beginning of the week. As there is sure to be a big crowd at all three performances today, it is advisable to get your seats early and save being disappointed.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Mary Pickford Appearing in "Love Among the Roses"; Dramatic Film.

Dainty little Mary Pickford will appear at the Colonial theatre today in her regular Saturday appearance; this time the title of the offering is "Love Among the Roses," an exceedingly beautiful film, abounding in gorgeous glimpses of the most beautiful of California landscapes. The story is a pretty one, and with sufficient character to enable Mary to do some of her best work, at the same time to fascinate the eye with the sublime scenery. Marian Nesbit, that wonderful woman of such refinement, who appears as heroine in all of the biggest of the Edison productions. Edison productions, will be seen today in the masterful film in three acts, entitled "Killed Against Orders". a drama of a unique type, and over-flowing with thrilling and sensational scenes. Appearing with her is a splendid coterie of actors and actresses to correctly support her in this exceedingly difficult and trying part. Her art is seen to advantage in the tremendous climax which closes the film, and leaves the audience in a high state of slation. The honors of the balance of the bill are divided between the most attractive films entitled "The Divided Locket", and "The Honor of the vation. Sunday school at 12.15".

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

An exceptionally fine program of motion pictures is showing at the Autitorium today, with Winifred Kingston in "The Love Route", as the Paramount feature. It is a picturization of the play by the mount feature. It is a picturization of the play by the same name, which ran in New York for such a long time and depicts a western story full of love, intrigue and romance. "The Love Route" is by the same author as 'A Pair of Sixes", a show which made a distinct hit on Broadway the lest i distinct hit on Broadway the last two seasons.

The theme of the play is based on one of the most original foundations ever utilized for a stage or screen subject, the actual construction of a railfond. The screen clearly shows this ascinating work, with the necessary paraphernalia. material, and men rejuired for railroad-building. Added to this novelyty is a thrilling romance and a battle between man and woman and men and men that will keep the tudience breathless until the very final lash.

The Pamous Players have spared no expense in making the building of the fallroad a triumph of screen realism. If achinery modern to the very day of the actual work of the production, has been obtained; railroad engineers have ided the director in perfecting the illusion, and thousands of men are seen it work on the road. THE HOUSE OF SILENCE.

Stone-deaf am Lastone-deaf; and so for Stone-deaf am Lastone-deaf; and so for me
Life holds no joyous provinces of sound:
But spares me this, the stabbing cries of pain
Wrung from warm hearts that lose or, worse, are lost.
And yet—and yet—ah, well, there are my eyes
With which to read more knowingly than you.

Such clues? Try once to listen with your eyes. To bird-trill, brook-purl-yes, to see a sound Thus may you learn what I have gained—and lost; And how to prence the masks of joy and pain.
